THE 1969 MICHAELINIAN
SAINT MICHAEL HIGH SCHOOL
44 PIUS STREET PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA 15203

The philosophy of St. Michael High School is based on the belief that the individual is more important than the group. Each student has a distinct personality which finds itself dependent on outside forces. Striving to achieve creativity, the student has the intention of profiting from this experience. Thus, through education we become responsible members of society and fit candidates for the life we enter into when we leave St. Michael.

In this book, it is our desire to leave with you the thought that here at St. Michael our characters are given a chance to grow and develop with the intelligence needed to handle the realities of life, and to reap from it the fruits of heaven.

Development

The development of a child's character must be enhanced by the close moral guidance of responsible people dedicated to the task of enriching the mind and its capacity to think.

Bishop

THE MOST REVEREND
JOHN J. WRIGHT, S.T.D.

Bishop John J. Wright, solemn and serious, stops for a moment of quiet prayer. He has many mixed emotions on the reformation of the Catholic Liturgy and of Catholic education taking place throughout the schools of Pittsburgh. The Bishop acknowledges the great value of a Catholic education in today's world.

Auxiliary Bishop School Superintendent

THE MOST REVEREND
JOHN B. McDOWELL, S.T.D.

The Most Reverend John B. McDowell, Superintendent of Catholic schools in the diocese of Pittsburgh, has played a great part in the advancement of the Parochial school system.

FATHER JOHN PATRICK, C.P.
Pastor and Religion Instructor

Pastor

As you leave us, my dear Seniors, I think of your four years on good old Pius Street—your Sisters and Teachers, your Science Laboratories, your trips down over the hill with John Peschko to the 10th Street "swimming hole",—your ear-bursting music at your dances, your scared faces during exam week, your formal composure in the deep, majestic old Church of St. Michael's. I hear in the quiet of an August Night your cheerleaders practicing, the sweet tones of your Christmas Carols, and I see our boys covered with sweat and exhaustion on a locker room bench after losing a close Basketball Game. This truly is education—your heart, your emotions, your mind, your bodies. We are proud that St. Michael's High, like every Catholic Educational center in the world educates its youth to follow exactly the First Commandment: to love God with one's whole being, with all our strength, our minds, our bodies, our whole beings. May it always be so with each of you! God be with you.

Father John Patrick Moore, C.P., Pastor

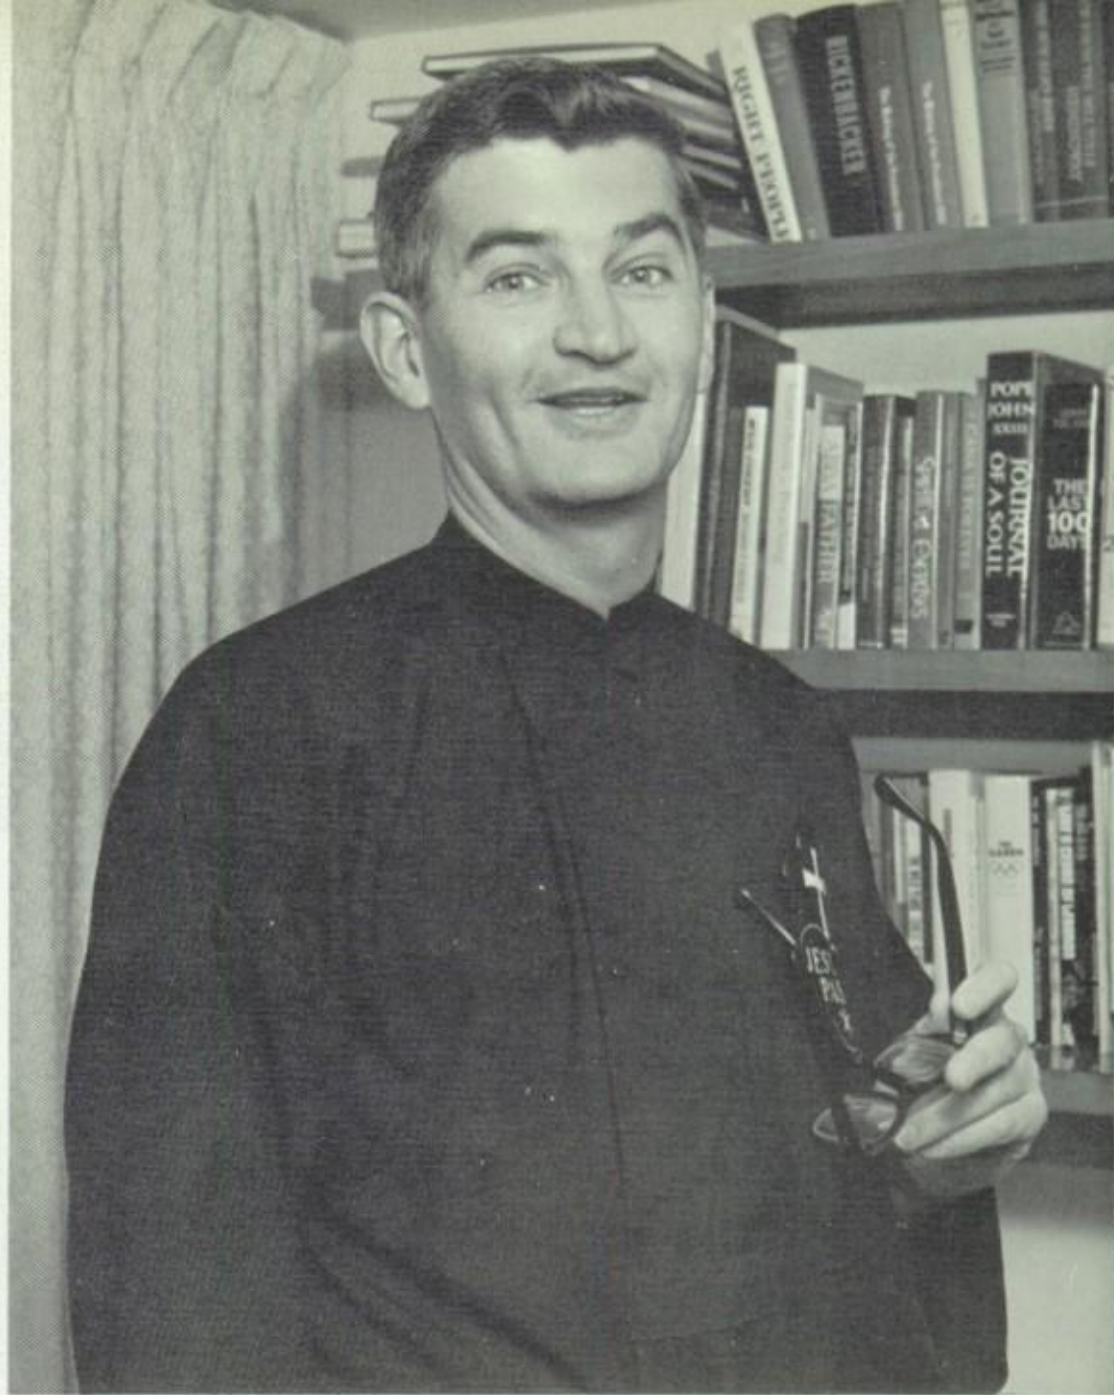

TAKING TIME OUT from his tedious schedule is Father John, our pastor, to discuss the current problems facing the teenagers of today. Included in this discussion are: R. Lupori, R. Yotz, L. Lupori, P. Walsh, E. Schanck, and P. Javorsky.

Assistant Pastor

I have been with the class of 1969 since you were wee little Freshmen. I dare not write with any sense of pride, for like Father John we always feel that we have not done enough for you. What I mean is that looking back (TRY TO REMEMBER THAT DAY IN SEPTEMBER) to 1965 onward to 1969 I think of our Religion Classes, our classes about God's message of Salvation in the Bible. Then I kind of switch my mind to all our teams, our coaches, our games, our uniforms. Finally, and most important, I shall always see you all kneeling before me in the Confessional, at the Communion Rail, asking for God's blessing before all your games. On the light side there are the many times you brought us joy with your dramatic and artistic talents on the stage in the auditorium. In a word, we have tried to educate your whole person, your whole being, intellectually, physically, morally. May each of you forever bear the mark of that training, and give to God and to your country the fullness of service thru the fullness of your being.

Father Peter O'Rourke, C.P., Assistant

FATHER PETER CHARLES O'ROURKE, C.P.
Assistant and Religious Instructor

READ, READ, READ !!! This is the theme Father Peter is trying to get across to these students, L. Rosenburger, S. Vale, D. Drapala, J. Froehlick, J. Ciechalski, and P. Redlinger, as he finds an interesting article in his favorite magazine.

MORE COFFEE? asks Sister Celestine to Linda Clerici, Secretary; Paul Birek, Treasurer; and Nick Tupi, Vice-President; as Joyce Daugherty, President, hands out cookies. Sister Celestine often takes time out of her busy schedule for a friendly chat with the Student Council officers.

Dear Graduates:

The long, slow, and sometimes painful process of education goes on; then, with startling suddenness the words of an Alma Mater take on a deep meaning—the finality of it all becomes real.

Many of the things to which so much importance was attached become insignificant while the “insignificant” slips into its rightful place of values. Life is like that—deep and full of meaning.

No one escapes sorrow but neither is anyone without joy, provided one is willing to meet the challenge of sorting it all out. May you always be able to “sort it all out” and put all that happens to you in its rightful place.

The “restless streams we walk along” are full of so many challenges. Recalling the happy occasion of your Ring Day, may I repeat my wish for you which was taken from “Sounds of Silence.” May you always be able to turn your collar “to the cold and damp”; and somewhere, at sometime, may the light of a neon sign stab your eyes and split the night. Whatever the “neon light” may be for you—at that moment God will be real, life will be real, and you will be real to yourself, and the magnitude and beauty of the whole world will be real for you.

Freshmen

ROOM 105—Moderator, Miss J. Kerestes

Sitting: B. Hennessy, M. Tarasovich, D. Mogan, M. G. Wuenschell, J. Kucharski, D. Costello, C. Kierzkowski, J. Nowicki, E. Ricciardi, J. Schott, R. Lijewski, R. Mazur. Middle Row: S. Zulawski, R. Rieber, W. Kuhn, T. Kenitz, D. Owczarzar, S. Speicher, M. Switala, G. Klima, C. Birek, J. Denk, F. Connors, M. Miknevich, D. Goliat. Standing: P. Budd, M. Ignasky, T. Sharak, M. Lopato, T. Vogel, R. Bish, D. Wuenschell, C. Fallucco, B. Napiecek, A. Beloncis, M. Winters, R. Kratofil.

"THEN THERE WAS LIFE!" The mystery of creation is the topic of discussion among the freshmen: T. Sharak, F. Connors, D. Jarasiewicz, B. Hennessy, and R. Bronder.

LET'S TRY THIS METHOD! D. Lemanski prepares to demonstrate a literary idea of using overhead projection, J. Schott, W. Kuhn, C. Olup, and M. Switala make every effort to understand the topic.

ACTION, ACTION, WHERE'S IT AT??? is the only thing not demonstrated in this English class. They seem to be too interested in working while C. Biernacki hands out folders. They are P. Budd, D. Mogan, C. Miller, B. Napiecek, B. Kubiak, R. Mazur, J. Lijewski, M. Padjune, L. Yakstis, M. Lopato, C. Alex, and R. Kratofil.

"WHAT IS IT???" are the words of M. Broznick while the other Biology students, M. Winters, A. Beloncis, R. Lijewski, J. Nowicki, E. Ricciardi, M. Callan, and Gary Kuczma look on in bewilderment.

DOES HISTORY REPEAT ITSELF? Freshman World Culture students: P. Edward, A. Watton, G. Ivers, M. Daczynski, M. Ignasky find many contrary facts while looking through World news.

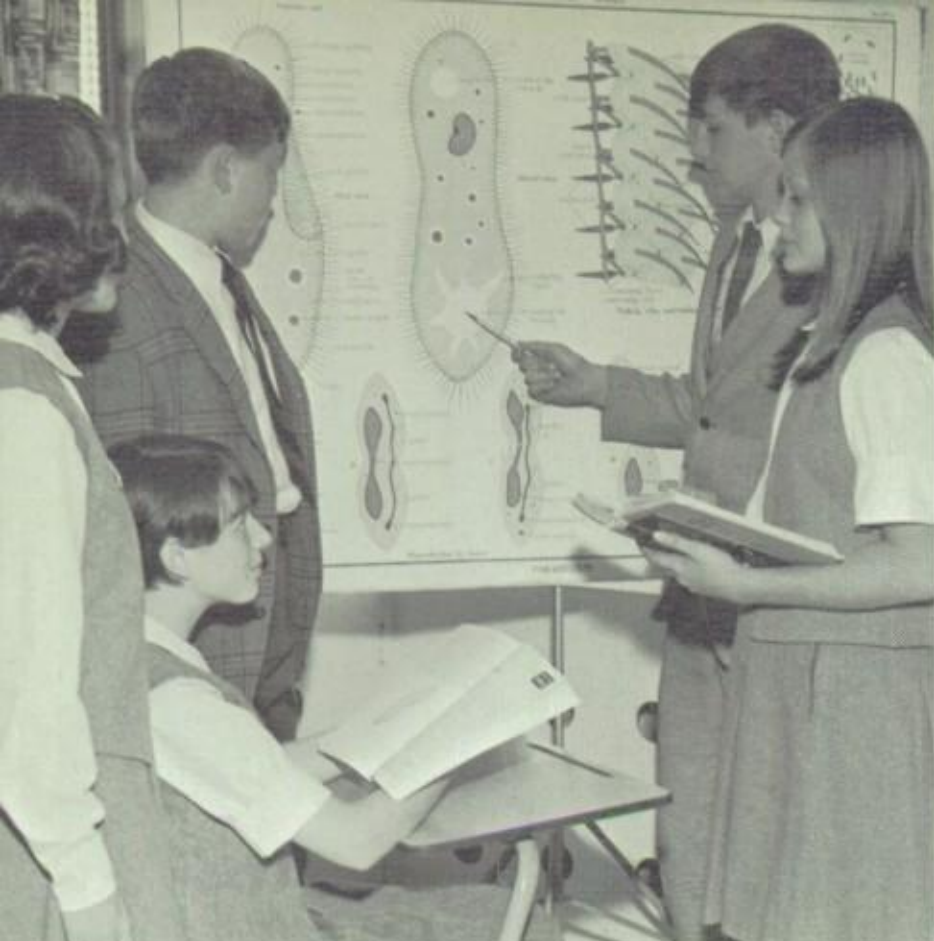

TREES, WEEDS and EVERYTHING are the enchanted cries of Freshman Art students T. Bielewicz, P. Boban, J. Costello, S. Henke, R. Bish as they discover the mysteries of outside life.

"FABULA, FABULAE, FABULANS" SOUNDS LIKE GREEK TO ME!!! Was the exclamation on L. Lupori's face, as S. Speicher explains the use of freshman Latin to T. Vogel, J. Denk, C. Fullucco, D. Drapala, J. Grezeczka.

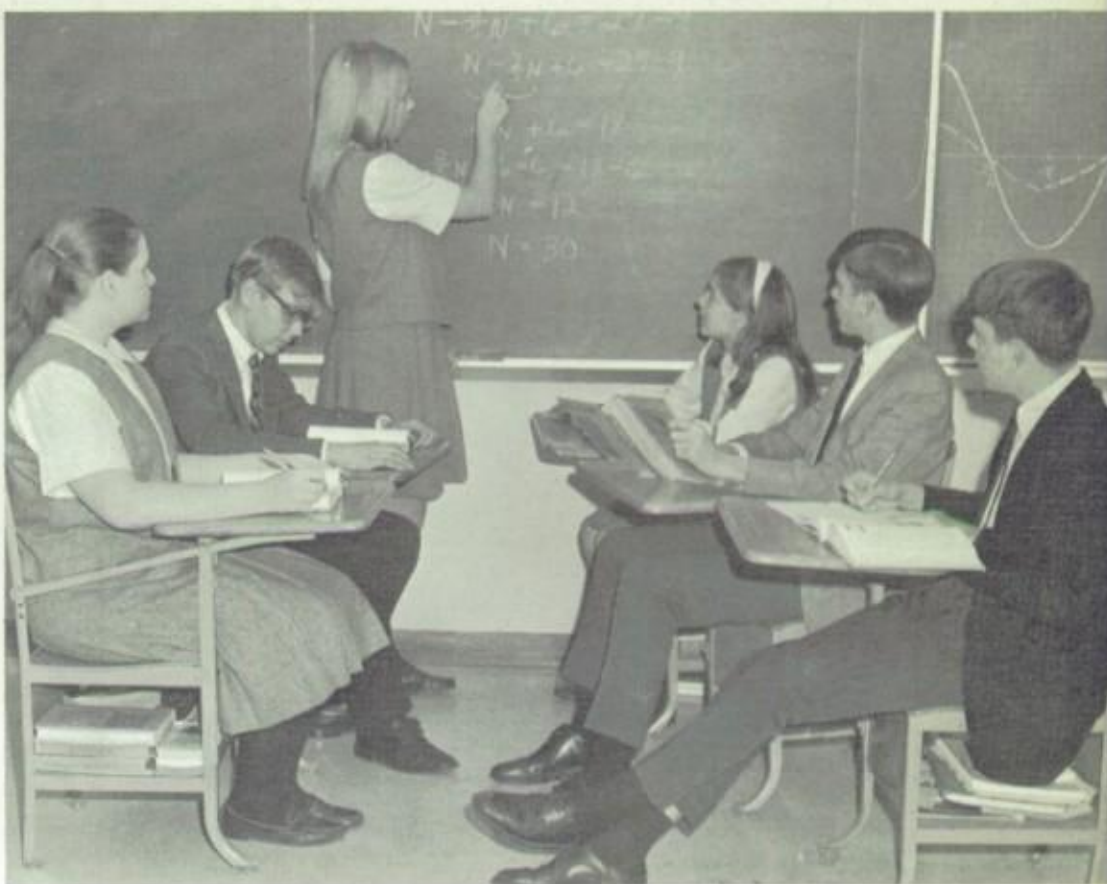

UP—DOWN—ONLY 299 MORE TIMES!!! C. Kozusko, A. Rosiak, K. Schreiner, W. Struczynski, R. Molka, and D. Wuenschell really seem enthusiastic about their gym class.

LEARNING THE MYSTERY OF THE CELLS—is the function of Freshman Biology Class as S. Huber, A. Koerbel, D. McGee, D. Rosenburger, and C. Birek look on in amazement.

DOES " $n - 3/5n + 6 = 27 - 9$ "? This is the bewildering question asked by Algebra students, D. Goliat, M. A. Meknevich, M. G. Wuenschell, S. Zulawski, J. Wachulski, and R. Rieber.

FRESHMAN 106—Moderator, Sister M. Concetta

Seated: P. Boban, M. Kaczynski, A. Bugel, M. Padjune, S. Huber, C. Miller, M. Broznick, A. Watton, S. Henke, J. Lijewski, D. Rosenburger, L. Lipori. Middle Row: D. Drapala, D. McGree, E. Paul, C. Kozusko, L. Uakstis, C. Olup, B. Sproat, D. Kubliak, C. Biernacki, G. Kuczma, G. Ivers, A. Rosiak, W. Struczynski. Standing: R. Bronder, J. Grzeczka, D. Jarasiewicz, R. Molka, D. Lemanski, J. Wachueski, M. Callan, J. Costello, A. Koerbel, C. Alex, K. Schreiner, T. Bielewicz.

Sophomores

CAUTION, is the guideword in the Sophomore Health class as D. Peterson, R. Senn, and B. Turney learn about the hazards of smoking and drinking at an early age.

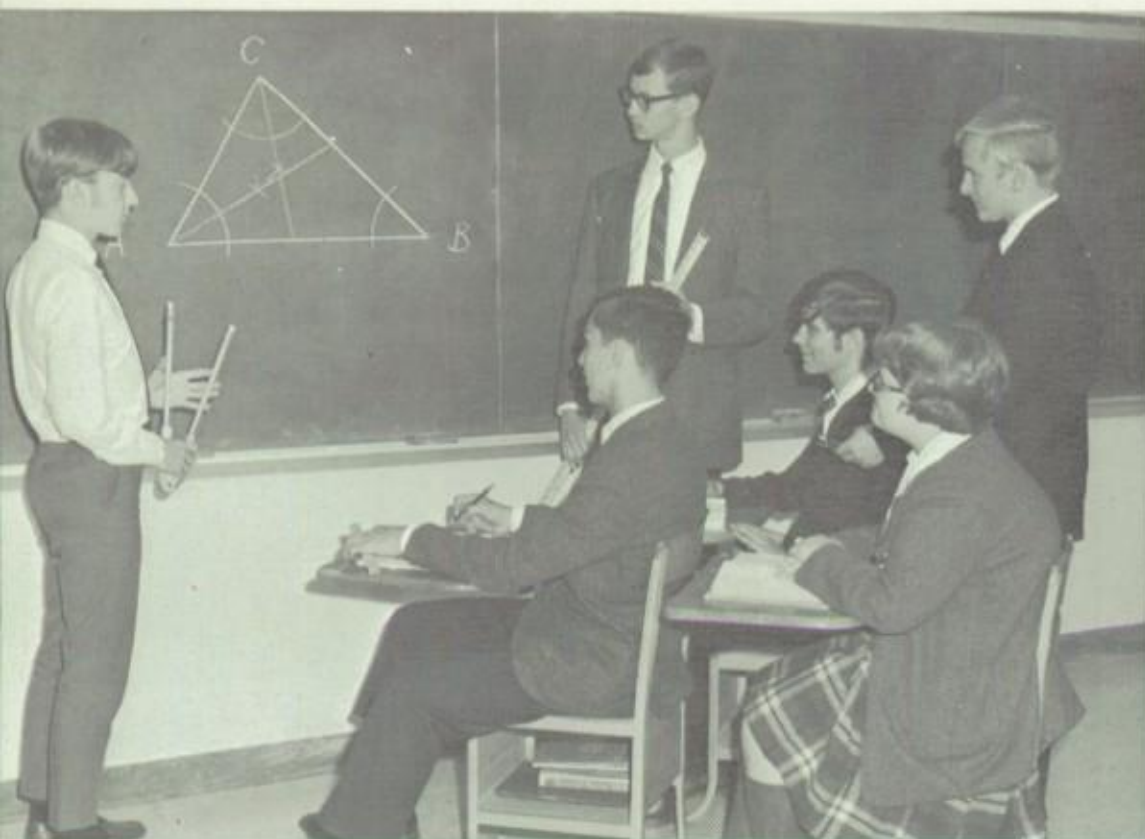

"OK, DOWN TO WORK," says J. Ciechalski to D. Ray, J. DiMeo, and E. Prosky as they prepare to plan a discussion on World Affairs.

SOPHOMORE 202—Moderator, Sister M. Maurice

Seated: D. Peterson, M. L. Clerici, C. Blahut, M. Madeya, L. Lipinski, B. Obringer, B. Turney, M. E. Conway, D. Prosser, L. Aul, and S. Vogel. Middle Row: J. Ciechalski, D. Milinski, N. Raymond, D. Prosky, E. Prosky, D. Pokora, R. Zola, D. Heck, M. Sneltzer, D. Volberg, and G. Lis. Standing: E. Horn, J. Chowlewinski, T. Beringer, D. Napiecek, P. Sopkowiak, L. Sneltzer, J. Lawlor, J. Sipes, K. Ugen, B. Barrett, and J. O'Connors.

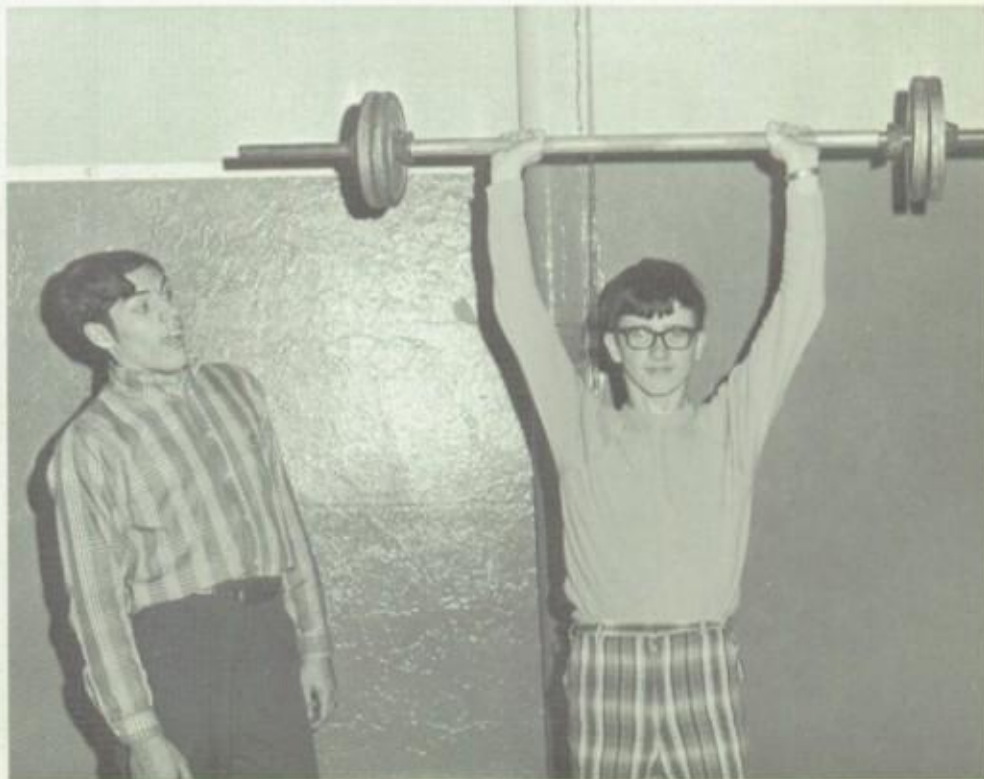

THE FIFTH DIMENSION seems to be the slogan of this geometry class. D. Volberg, explains the different angles of the triangle to E. Horn, B. Obringer, P. Sopkowiak, J. Lotz, and J. Lawlor.

LEARNING CAN BE INTERESTING. The Sophs experience for the first time the benefits they can receive from studying the Spanish language. They are: V. Capaccio, M. L. Clerici, J. Donovan, D. Napiecek, M. E. Conway, and T. Beringer.

"WOW! WHAT AN INVENTION, PURE WATER AT LAST." C. Blahut describes her purification method as L. Aul, J. Cancilla, D. Panko, D. Hick, and N. Raymond carefully watch the demonstration.

PRESS 50-80-100? J. Chowlewinski finds himself astonished to see K. Ugen as Mr. Muscleman of the year.

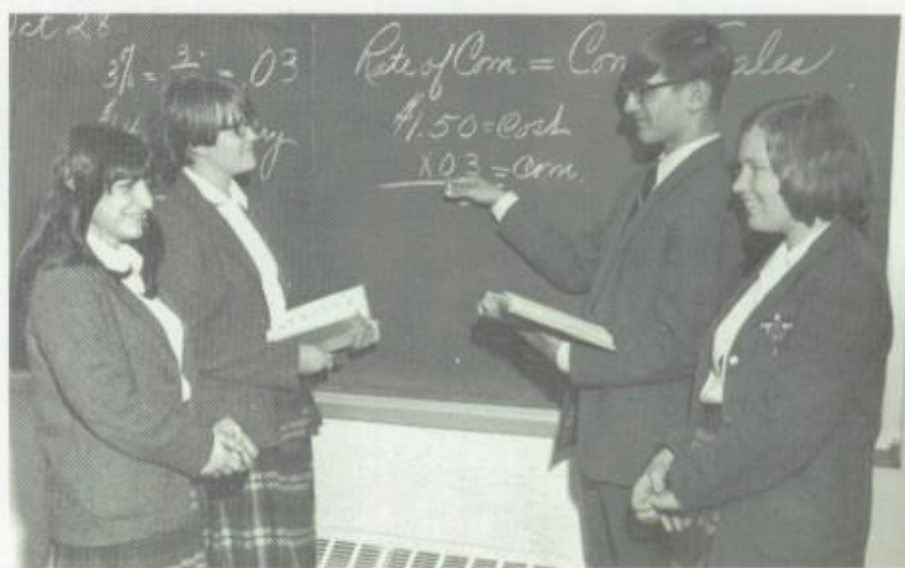

LOOK! WHAT'S HAPPENING, as the Sophs in their chemistry class test the burning power of oxygen with a glowing splint. Seated: D. Milinski, R. Lupori, S. Vogel; Standing: Mr. Madeya, J. Sipes, L. Lipinski, and V. Posset.

RESEARCH! RESEARCH! The sophs Religion Class work together on an important research problem. The students: P. Javorsky, M. Trevino, R. Lupori, E. Carik, N. Zain, M. Huber. Seated: H. Polatayko, J. Turkovich and D. Prosser seem to have a lead answer.

MERCY! MERCY! MERCY! Pleads J. Kuhar portraying an evil omen of an 18th century novel, as her classmates E. Fritz, B. Zola, D. Lotis, S. McKain and D. Pokora, reproach in her fear.

SALESPeOPLE OF TOMORROW—J. DiMeo, D. Piotrowski, D. Ray and M. L. Letson learn methods in math class of finding a commission on a million dollar sale.

THE GREAT RED BARON intrigues the Sophomore World History class as V. Capaccio, P. Sopkowiak, E. Horn, J. Chowlewinski, and B. Ob-ringer review some of the highlights of W W I.

SOPHOMORE 303—Moderator, Mr. John Bobinski

Standing: H. Polatayko, A. Panko, J. Cancilla, J. Turkovich, P. Javorski, J. DiMeo, M. L. Letson, D. Piotrowski; Middle Row: B. Monahan, J. Donovan, S. McKain, J. Kuhar, D. Lotis, N. Zain, E. Carik, E. Fritz, R. DelVecchio; Standing: D. Ray, R. McKibben, W. Callan, J. Lotz, R. Senn, V. Capaccio, V. Posset, M. Huber, R. Lupori.

STRONGER THAN DIRT! Is the motto of the Sophs Home Ec. girls J. Cancilla, D. Piotrowski, M. L. Letson, D. Hick, L. Aul, D. Panko, as they prepare for another day of washing and ironing in their hopes as future housewives.

Juniors

"ROUND AND ROUND SHE GOES, WHERE SHE STOPS NOBODY KNOWS." This seems to amaze J. Torisky, T. Battung, G. Denk, B. Broznick, R. Carney, and D. Balcer.

Shwne! It may seem like Greek to some people, but the junior shorthand students, N. Glowacki, C. Milcarek, C. Kwas, N. Eberlein, and C. Baranowski seem to find it easy and enjoyable.

"I HEARD IT THROUGH THE GRAPE VINE!" Sister Bertram plays Mitch Miller as the juniors D. Habrat, J. Torisky, C. Hornicak, F. Favela, J. Vogel and B. Broznick sing along.

"THE BOOK SAYS ANY TWO YEAR OLD CAN DO IT." P Redlinger, P. Staub, L. Rosenburger and D. Teschke, the junior typists, seem to have some difficulty believing it.

JUNIORS 301, Moderator, Sister Marilyn

Seated: E. Farren, C. Kwas, P. Redlinger, G. Grillo, G. Linke, L. Rosenburger, C. Hornicak, P. Walkowiak, B. Lotis. Middle Row: H. Jones, B. Rebovich, N. Glowacki, S. Vale, M. May,

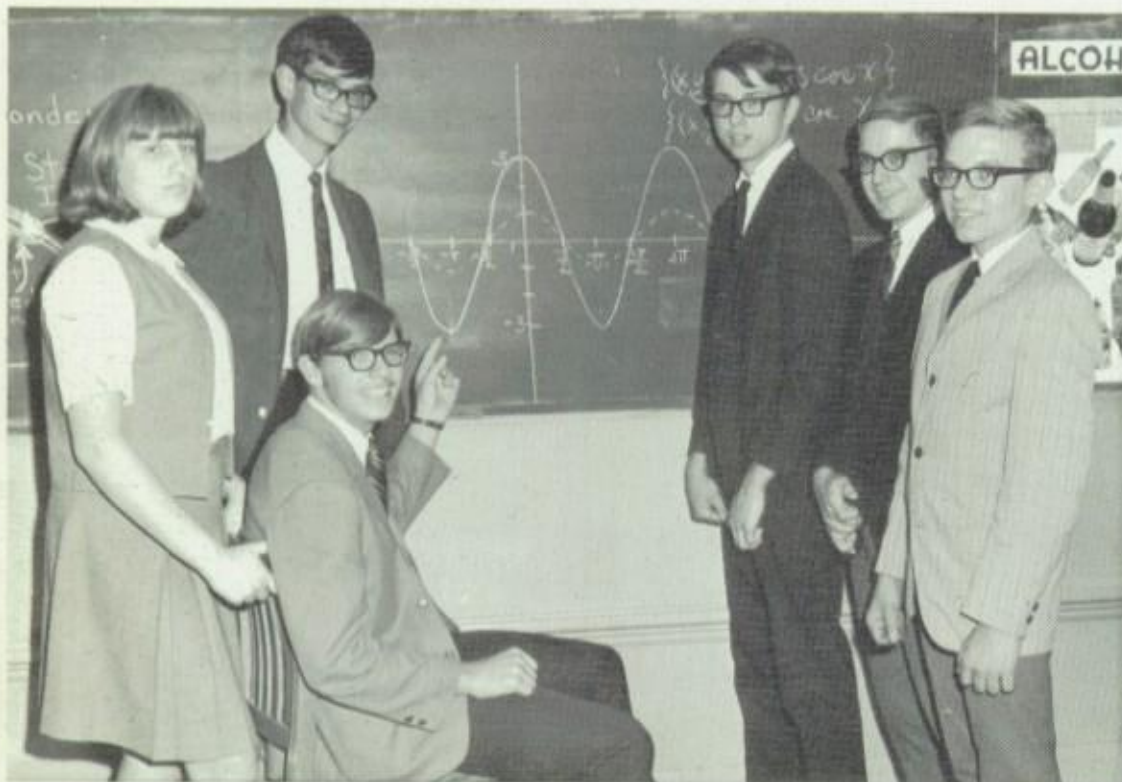

F. Favela, E. Korshlack, T. Stiefvater, L. Fritzley. Standing: J. Doring, G. Denk, B. Broznick, J. O'Connor, D. Balcer, J. Vale, G. Krauss, J. Vogel, D. Habrat, J. Froehlich.

"OLE! OLE! OLE! VIVA ESPANA !!!" Juniors S. Vale and F. Favela examine their Spanish projects and attempt to explain them as A. Amrhein, J. Susan, and J. Froehlich look on with interest.

"BALANCE IS THE KEY WORD," for our future bookies, B. Rebovich, J. Doring, and E. Korshlack, who seem to have the situation well in hand even though there are high hurdles to overcome.

THIS IS A "WHATCHAMECALLIT GRAPH" says G. Krauss, as he explains the ups and downs of Algebra II to S. Vale, D. Schilling, H. Turnball, D. Zarewczynski, and J. Froelich.

HEAVY HEAD is the title given to A. Amrhein by T. Franklin, as she passes out the English magazines, with D. Lyewski giving a helping hand.

JUNIORS 104—Moderator, Sister Barbara Ann

Seated: C. Milcarek, C. Barrett, G. Hassett, N. Watton, T. Baranowski, T. Franklin, C. Lotz, N. Eberlein, and T. Battung. Middle Row: D. Zarewczynski, D. Fajerski, P. Staub, D. Teschke, J. Ziegler, J. Torisky, C. Clark, J. Drzaznski, E. Wild-

ing, and A. Amrhein. Standing: W. Meskunas, R. Carney, S. Blisczcz, K. Poleski, H. Turnball, J. Teierle, M. Hartman, R. Koerbel, D. Schilling, F. Baehr, and D. Lyewski.

FRUSTRATION! as it is shown on the face of K. Poleski as he tries to explain the technicalities of the ego to D. Lyewski, J. Vogel, D. Habrat, H. Jones, D. Fajerski, and C. Hornicak.

YOU GOTTA BE KIDDIN' is the expression on N. Watton's face as E. Farren explains the Electoral College system to G. Linke, B. Lotis, M. S. May.

ANYONE FOR A DANCE! P. Walkowiak finds this modern jazz step a little tricky but G. Grillo enjoys it.

FINISHING TOUCHES ARE IMPORTANT! The Junior Home Ec girls, E. Farren, D. Teschke, M. S. May, G. Grillo, N. Eberlein, and G. Linke, make the effort to do a perfect job. They seem to enjoy it, also.

Seniors

"DON'T YOU REALLY LOVE ME?" is the topic of the senior Religion class, D. Koerbel, D. Bielewicz, D. Kuhn, G. Wesolowski, B. Pawlowski, M. Rieber, and N. Donovan. The posters in the background were the highlights of the talk.

HOW NICE! JOSE—Can it be! Yes, it's true! Our great J. Brendel has become attached to his Spanish friend, at least that's what D. Donovan, C. Kuchler, K. Corcoran, and C. Hawkins think and watch with delight as Joe gets a Spanish hat placed on his head.

DESIGNERS OF TOMORROW! P. Walsh seems to enjoy the inability of N. Donovan to thread her needle. C. Kamp, P. Muchler, and N. Fritz, join in the teasing, as they work on their project.

BUSY BEAVERS! The senior girls, J. Bertel, J. Bertel, C. Rieber, D. Bischof, D. Simon, S. Tierle, T. Detemple, and A. Letson realize the achievement of becoming the ideal typist.

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y!!! D. Bielewicz shows the sign of victory for Wallace in an election campaign held by the Senior P.O.D. class. M. L. Karl, D. Karcher, B. Meixner, M. Kostiuik, and J. Geraci support him. The opposing Nixon team of E. Schanck, D. Frobe, M. Kuhar, N. Linke, and M. Pavlick look on challengingly.

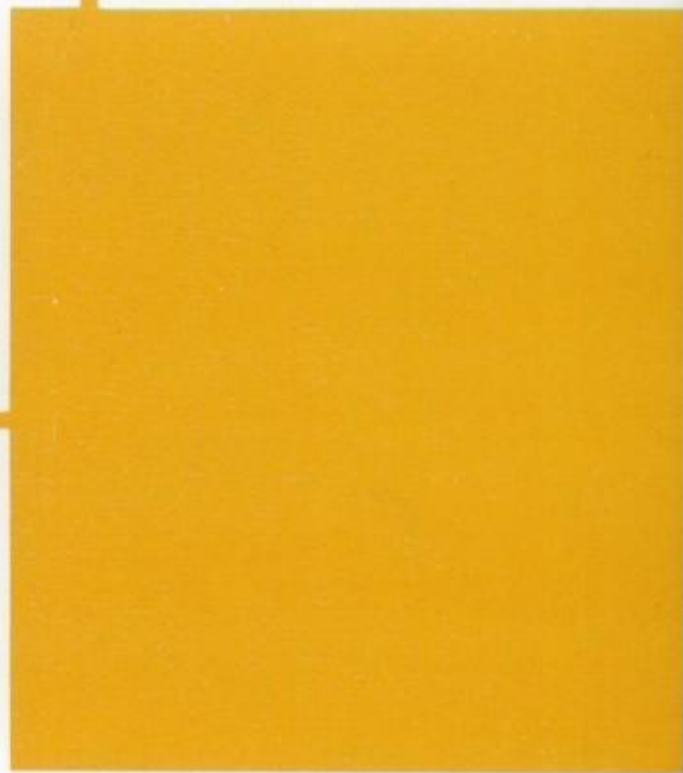

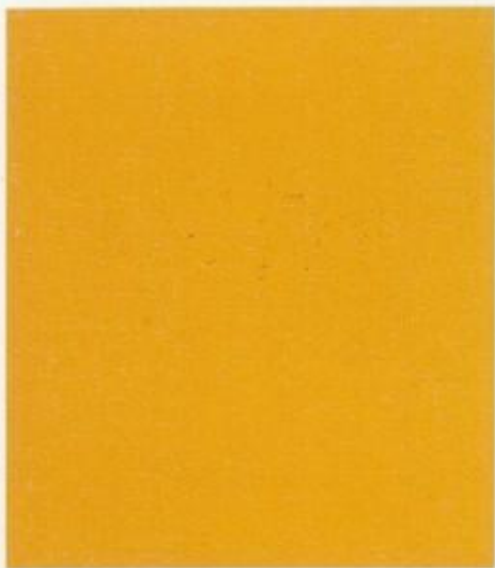

THIS IS IMPORTANT!! says J. Daugherty to C. Beringer, pointing to an article in a science booklet. C. Becker seems interested in the book he's reading, while E. Kazmierczak keeps a close eye on D. Dugas typing a paper for science class.

RULERS! ERASERS! PENCILS!—some of the equipment that our Mechanical drawing class finds useful. R. Szewczyk, R. Yotz, R. Lach, D. Dwulit, and P. Birek seem to be seriously interested in what they are doing. Miss Kerestes, their teacher, is always around to help.

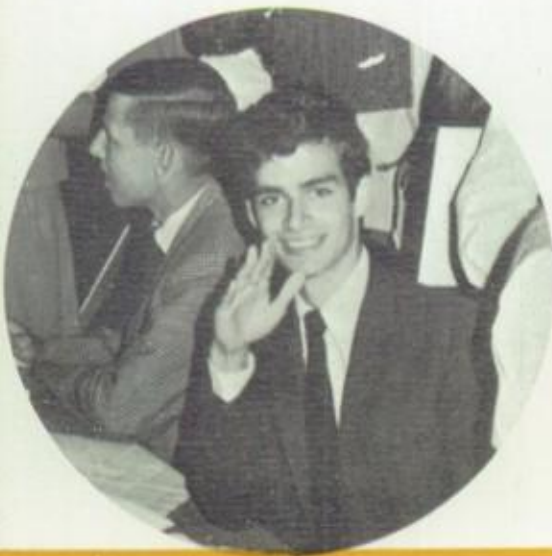

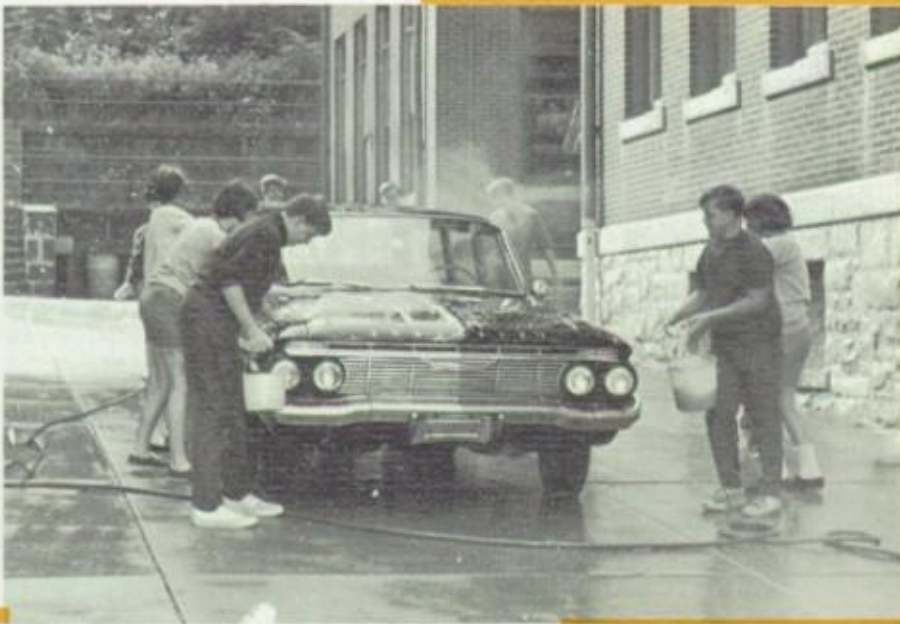

DOES A BOY BELONG IN THE BUSINESS WORLD? M. Dytko seems to think so, as he shows his ability in operating business machines to L. Clerici, J. Winters, M. Kostelnik, P. Wilhelm, and K. Suess.

Activities

Conscious of the duality of man's need to achieve personal mastery and the necessity to work hand in hand with others, we must learn to benefit through the errors and success of others.

Student Council

UNITED FUND TIME. The Civic Committee of the Student Council sponsors the drive in school. Serving on the committee: Seated: S. Bernacki, N. Glowacki, P. Walsh and J. Bertel. Standing: J. Vogel, P. Budd, S. McKain and E. Wilding.

GHOSTS AND GOBLINS, are the call of the day while the social committee, K. Suess, D. Karcher, J. Kuhar, C. Hornicak, C. Kuchler and J. Drazynski prepare for a dance.

WOULD YOU BELIEVE IT? This Cultural Committee consisting of M. Kuhar, C. Beringer, E. Schanck, N. Eberlein, C. Kwas and S. Vogel actually know how to work.

AHH . . . Sister Maurice and the Student Council Officers, J. Daugherty, N. Tupi, P. Birek and L. Clerici sure look pleased with their good work.

HAVE YOU? THEY HAVE! The Religious Committee, B. Obringer, D. Donovan, J. Torisky and C. Kamp have helped to boost the spiritual morale of our school.

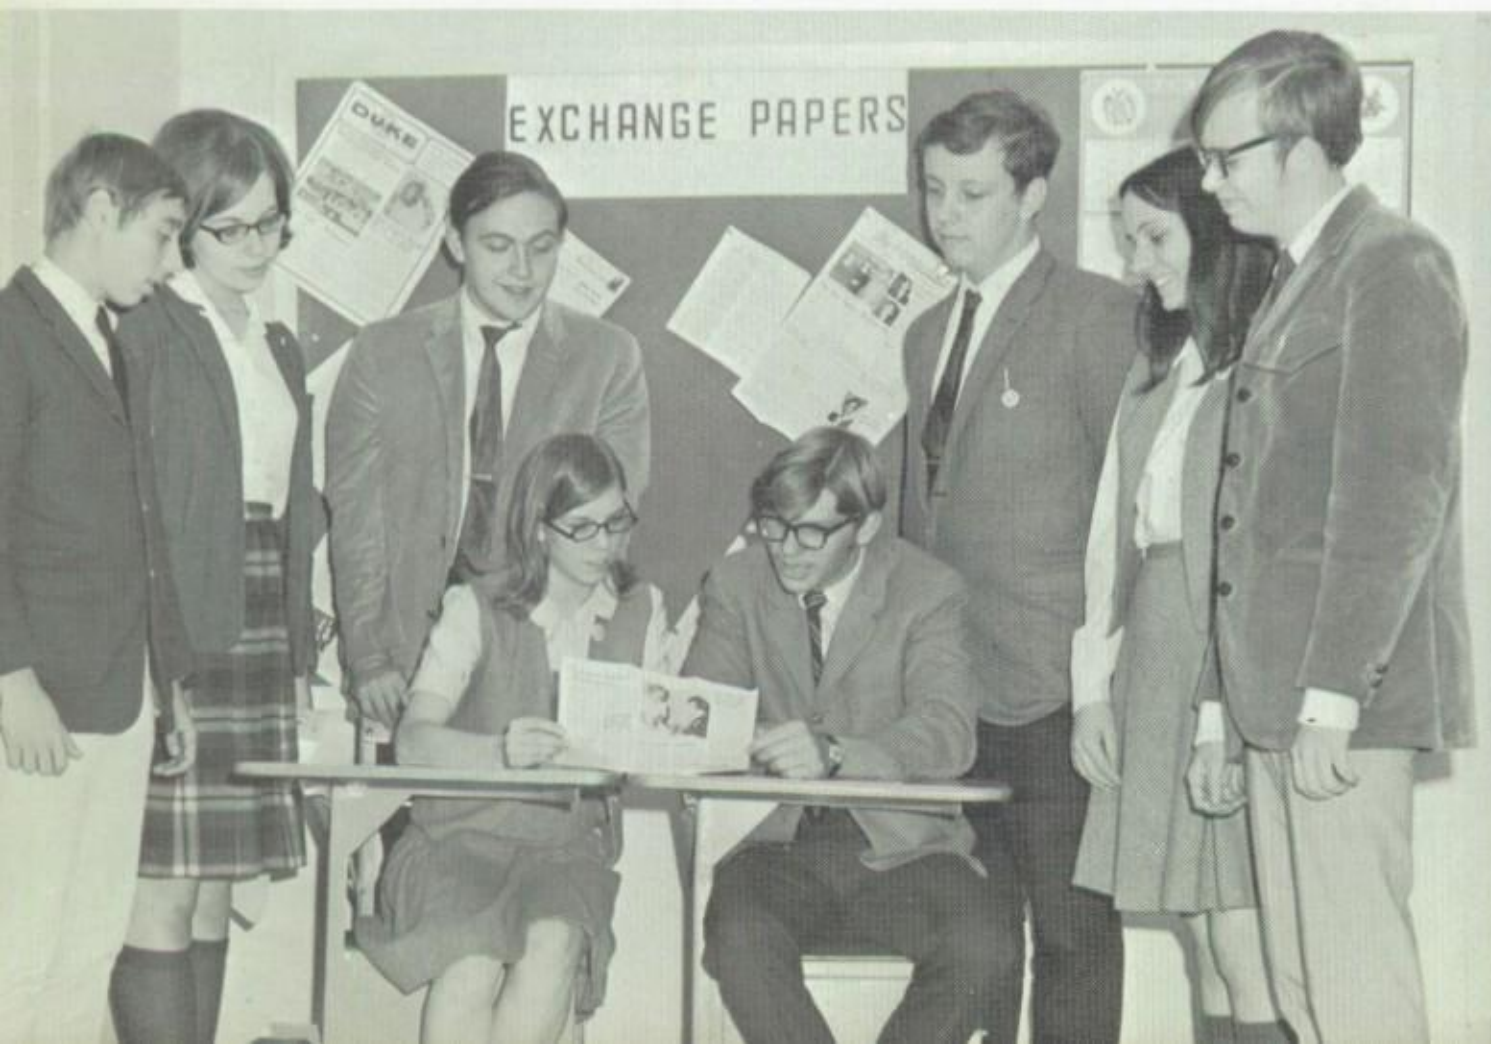

HELP! FIRE! Screams the Propaganda Committee. Seated: J. Bertel, N. Watton, R. Yotz. Standing: D. Balcer, K. Ugen, J. Donovan and A. Tulisiak as they prepare to wake up the spirit in our school.

SAINT MICHAELS' ATHLETIC COMMITTEE has provided us with a strong sports program here in our school. Pictured here are G. Kraus, S. Hutter, R. Szewczyk, M. Hartman, F. Aul, T. Beringer and J. Cholewinski with some of the many trophies that our students have won.

Excalibur

I WANNA GO HOME mumbles Charlie Cholewinski as the remainder of the Soph Journalism Class involves itself with a lively journalistic discussion.

"MOUSE" KRAUSS LEADS IN SCORING with 23 points, chants G. Krauss, to T. Franklin, T. Stiefvater, J. Torisky, R. Carney, G. Denk, C. Clark and E. Korshlak as they read over a sports article published in the Excalibur.

THERE'S A DEADLINE TO MEET seems to be of concern to Sister Marilyn, Moderator of the Excalibur, but not to Sue Bernacki, Editor, and Karen Suess, Business Manager. As a rule, the Excalibur never misses a deadline.

FOR A CHANGE OF PACE . . . EXCACIBUR This seems to be the topic for discussion among the Excalibur "V. I. P.'s": R. Rauber, D. Dugas, S. Bernacki, J. McKibben, and K. Suess.

EXCALIBUR PREPARES FOR PUBLICATION as R. Carney, G. Denk, D. Dugas, J. McKibben, R. Rauber, and J. Torisky work furiously to meet a deadline.

"FOR THE LAST TIME, IT'S M-I-C-H-A-E-L—NOT, E-A-L," moans M. L. Karl to fellow typist J. Winters, as D. Simon and K. Suess work hard to turn out a flawless paper.

Michaelinian

TAP, TAP, TAP, DING! goes the typewriter as the Michaelinian typists E. Schanck, C. Rieber, A. Letson, D. Simon, and D. Bischof work on and on and on and on correcting errors, proofreading, and arranging carbon copies.

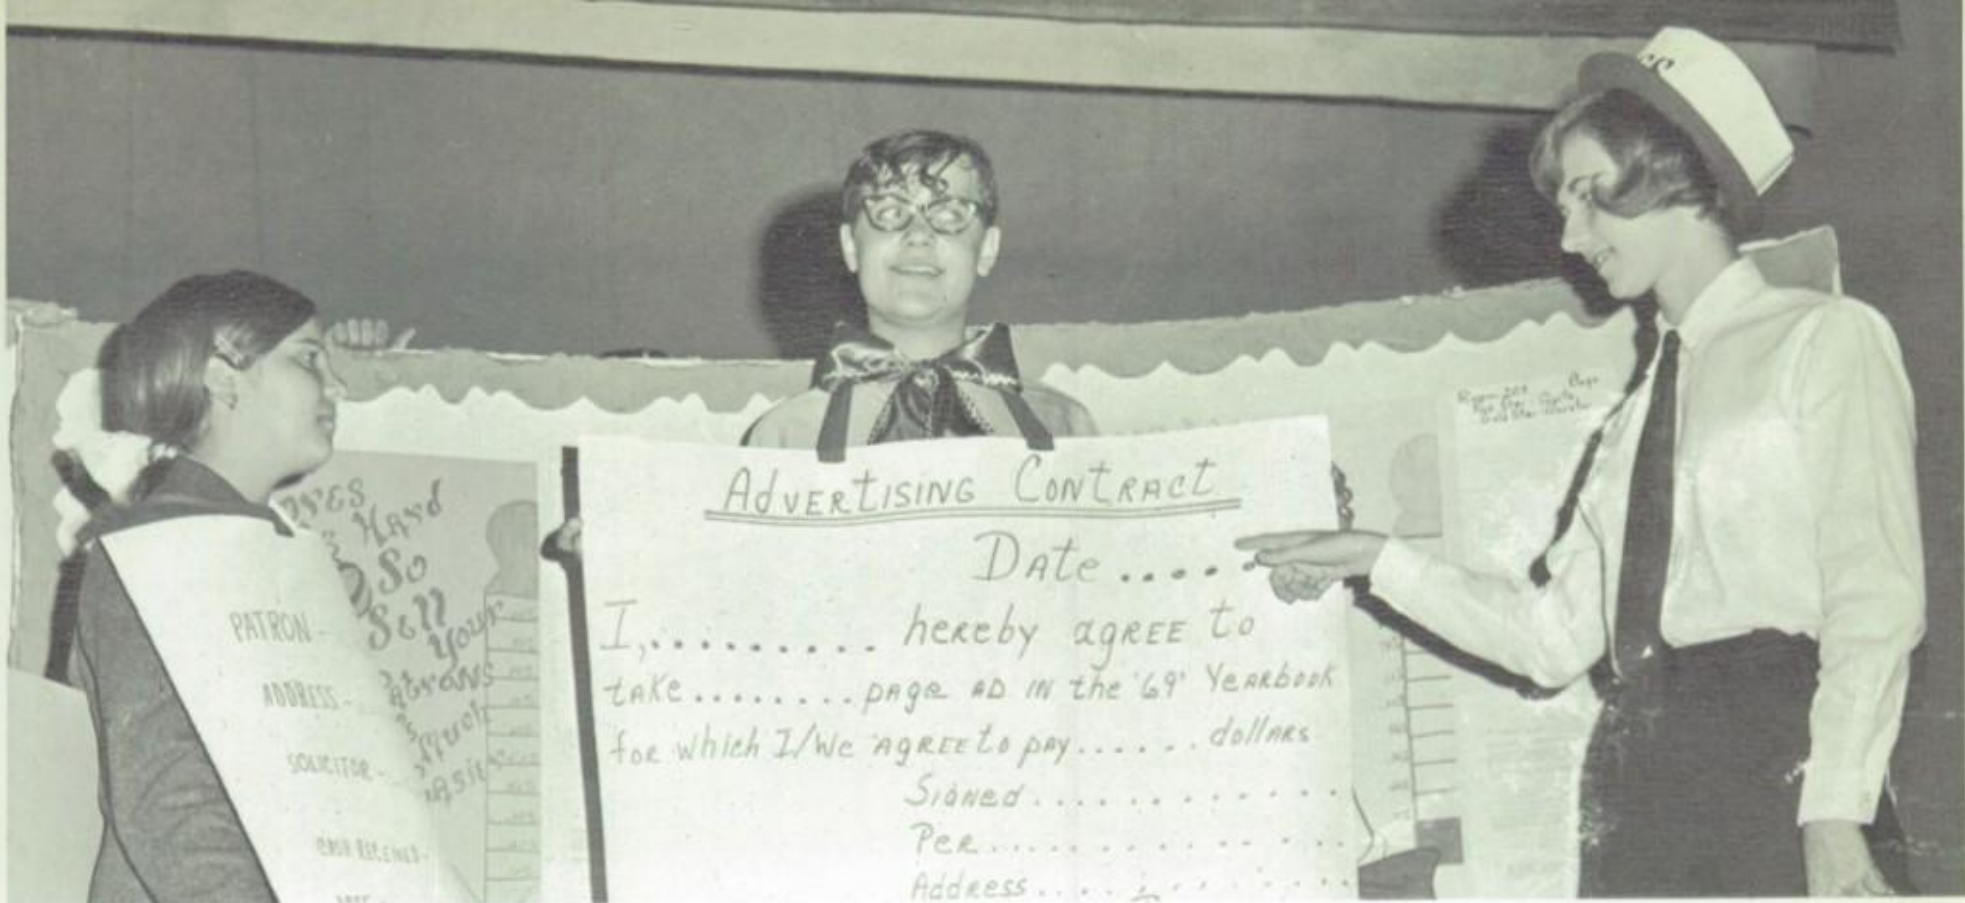

HEADACHES, HEADACHES, AND MORE HEADACHES!!! lie on the shoulders of M. L. Karl, Editor and Sister Mary Clare, Moderator who are doing their best to initiate a grand yearbook.

"SO HAPPY TOGETHER" and working like larks are the Michaelinian Staff members who are doing their best to produce the greatest yearbook. Through their efforts and many hours of hard work, the Michaelinian is created. You can tell by their facial expressions, the eagerness in their hearts and the atmosphere of good will present. They are, bottom row: J. Winters, D. Karcher, D. Bischof, seated: P. Muchler, M. L. Karl, J. Bertel, A. Letson, C. Beringer, standing: N. Fritz, S. Tierle, M. Dytko, D. Simon, D. Frobe, J. Bertel, C. Becker, P. Walsh, E. Kazmierczak, C. Rieber, and E. Schanck.

MEET THE PRESS! The reporter J. Bertel demonstrates the correct procedure for completing the business contract. C. Beringer awaits her turn to explain to the students the method of completing the personal contract. M. Dytko patiently accommodates the girls by assisting them.

"MIKE WE CAN DO IT OURSELVES" claim the girls, N. Fritz, D. Karcher, and P. Walsh; but M. Dytko still gives them his professional advice.

MY HEAD . . . MY HEAD!!! cries Humpty while the staff members J. Winters, P. Muchler, J. Bertel, S. Tierle, and J. Bertel try hard to mend his wounds by helping him reach the top.

LOOKIE, LOOKIE, LOOKIE!!! there's your picture says C. Beringer and D. Frobe to E. Kazmierczak and C. Becker as they look through previous yearbooks. This is one of the first jobs of the Michaelinian staff.

National Honor Society

"DO A GOOD JOB" is the cry of Sister Celestine as M. E. Conway, L. Lupori, D. Frobe, C. Beringer, and C. Hawkins leave for a very important task. They are tutors down at the South Side Brashear!

The National Honor Society is now in its third year at St. Michael High School. The object of our chapter here at St. Michaels is the same as other schools, namely, to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in our students.

Presently, we have only 10 members and they are all Seniors.

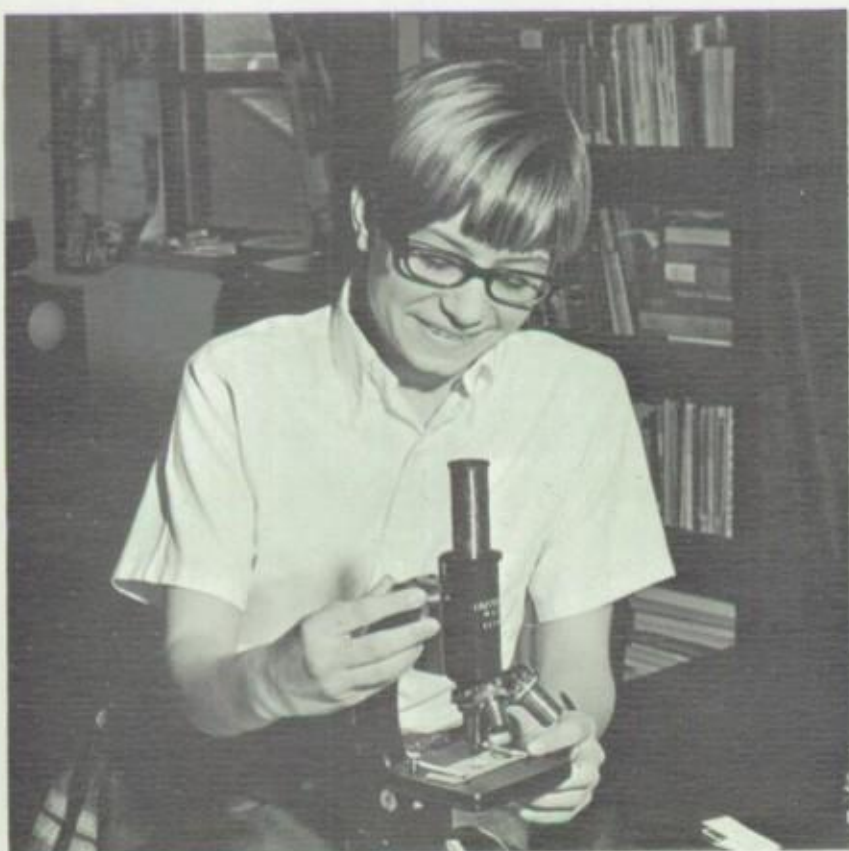

SCHOLARSHIP, LEADERSHIP, CHARACTER, AND SERVICE!
Shown below are St. Michael's 68-69 National Honor Society members. They are J. Bertel, E. Schanck, J. Daugherty, E. Kazmierczak, L. Clerici, D. Frobe, C. Kuchler, and C. Beringer.

1 + 1 = 3 The 68-69 Business Honor members are starting out right this year, or are they??? They are L. Clerici, J. Bertel, E. Schanck, K. Suess, and M. L. Karl.

SUCCESS! Paulette Javorsky studies paramacia under the influence of phenobarbital. She will present her investigation at Duquesne University on March 22, 1969, as a participant of Region 7.

FUTURE SCIENTISTS OF AMERICA! D. Jarasiewicz, J. Torisky, P. Javorsky, C. Hornicak, and L. Yakstis proudly display their citations for attending nine or more science lectures at Duquesne University and Mt. Mercy College.

AIMING TO WIN! S. Vogel, K. Ugen, and M.E. Conway are observing the vital organs of a frog which is to be used as part of a project in the Junior Academy of Science Competition, March 22, 1969.

Honor Societies

Ring Day

HAPPINESS IS YOUR SENIOR CLASS RING—The proudest possession of a Senior is his class ring. I don't think J. Geraci, C. Hawkins, and K. Lozecki would disagree as they show off their rings to Sister Celestine.

THEY TAGGED ME! Senior C. Becker is the victim of C. Barrett as he enters the Chinese Hall of Fame and Fortune at the Ring Day Dance.

SOLEMN AT LAST—Though you seldom see a senior without a smile Ring Day is one day happiness was felt in the heart and a quiet stillness lingered over the senior classes.

JUNIORS SHOW SPIRIT—To add to the joy of Senior Ring Day the church resounded with the angelic voices of the Juniors who were accompanied by Sister Carole and Sister Marie Therese.

Forensics

This year the forensic program at Saint Michael became one of the leading activities in the school. Under the direction of Mr. Bobinski, moderator, and chapter president James McKibben, our NFL chapter now ranks with the leading schools in the Pittsburgh district. Apart from participating every weekend at district tournaments, our chapter has hosted five events here, and has sponsored several service projects. It is difficult for a school of our size to maintain itself among the large schools in our district, but the enthusiasm of our twenty-one members has enabled us to keep on top.

The motto of our chapter and of our Sigma Lambda Sigma honor society is "I Call a Spade a Spade," and the record of our chapter in student congress, extemp, and original oratory proves that our motto does indeed express the spirit of our chapter. Although thirteen of our members will graduate, our exceptional underclass members will provide a nucleus around which to continue to build an ever growing NFL program here at Saint Michael.

"WE'RE GREAT!" Underclassmen NFL members under the guidance of Mr. John Bobinski, share their knowledge with each other and aim to keep the spirit high at St. Michael's.

MONEY PROBLEMS! The NFL officers, P. Muchler, J. McKibben, N. Tupi, and B. Pawlowski share their financial problems with Mr. John Bobinski, their moderator.

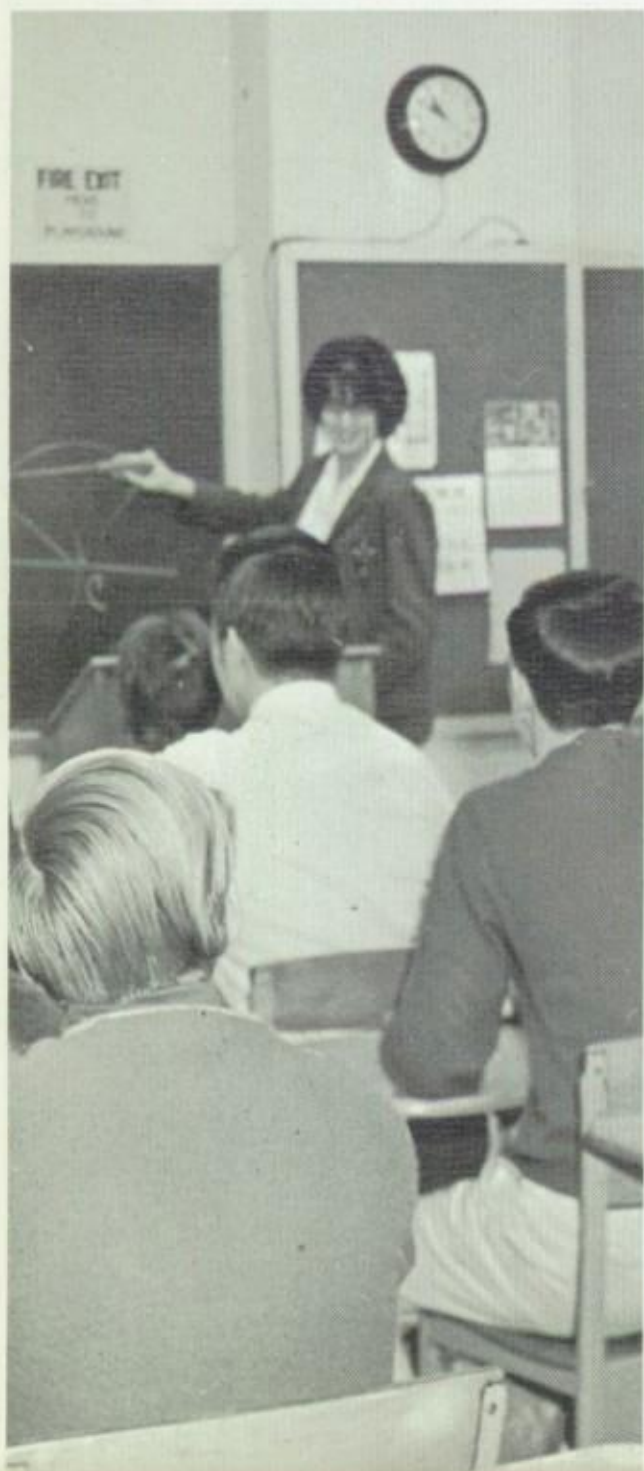

"IT WAS WORTH IT" . . . is the advise of the outgoing NFL seniors, P. Muchler, B. Meixner, R. Yotz, J. McKibben N. Tupi, D. Dugas, D. Donovan, P. Birek, K. Corcoran B. Pawlowski, J. Hudson, J. Daugherty to all those who will be NFL future members.

Around Our School

SHARED-TIME STUDENTS. One of the numerous activities our school participates in is the shared-time program. This program enables students from Saint Michael to take up trades at South High or Connelly Vocational. This is truly an asset to our school because we lack the facilities to provide this type of education for our students. Caught by the camera during one of their studies are the following Seniors who participate in this program: M. Kostiuik, J. Geraci, K. Lozecki, D. Bielewicz, D. Koerbel, and N. Linke.

WE GIVE THEE THANKS OH LORD . . . After receiving their class rings in church, these Seniors R. Rauber, A. DeTemple, P. Wilhelm, N. Donovan, and J. Bronder, enjoy breakfast prepared for them by the Juniors.

LEADERSHIP DAY. M. L. Clerici has an opportunity to get experience in the teaching profession as she takes over the class as a student teacher. Leadership Day is one of the highlights here at Saint Michael. It gives the students an insight on the responsibilities of a competent teacher.

A WHISKEY BOTTLE ☿$% #!& Relax, it's just the Prom Committee's way of raising money for the prom. These students D. Karcher, G. Trimbur, C. Kamp, and D. Simon are doing their best to make sure we have adequate funds for "our prom".

"AND I DON'T WANT NO PUSSY FOOTIN' AROUND" . . . R. Lach held the crowd's attention with his excellent portrayal of George Wallace at a rally put on by the Seniors preceding the presidential election. His men at arms were N. Tupi, J. Brendel, C. Becker, D. Bielewicz, and G. Trimbur.

ANYONE FOR A CANDY BAR? Yes, it's Pat and Ruth in their usual place, selling candy and potato chips for the National Forensic League.

DEDICATED WORKERS. Our congratulations to the Red Cross officers S. Teierle, S. Bliszczy, T. Battung, and B. Meskunas, and members J. Dryazynski, and E. Wilding, for the outstanding job they are doing. Because of their dedication, they have won the Parent Magazine Award frequently in the past.

"GET ON UP, AND SOCK IT TO ME!" This year has really been a great one for dances. With the Seniors leading the way, our dance floor has really been jumping. This added enthusiasm has everyone looking forward to more dances to come.

IT'S A GRAND OLD FLAG. These Junior girls T. Franklin, G. Linke, C. Hornicak, C. Barret, J. Torisky, L. Rosenburger, N. Watton, C. Kwas, G. Glowacki finish their French dance in a gay fashion. This was only one of the many nationalities represented at this year's Nationality Day program.

WHERE HAVE ALL THE FLOWERS GONE is the exclamation of wonder on the faces of J. Geraci, M. Kostiuik, C. Becker, J. Winters, N. Fritz, and T. DeTemple as they enjoy the experiences they receive on their Retreat Day.

A ROSE FOR THE LADY. Latin America Week is one of the many activities that the student body participates in whole-heartedly. A Spanish play was presented in which B. Meskunas and J. Torisky starred along with numerous dances and discussions on the Latin way of life.

"YOU'RE OUT OF ORDER," exclaims J. McKibben as he presides over a Student Congress. D. Dugas and B. Meixner are on hand to assist him in any controversial matters.

QUIET DURING EXCHANGE?? ANYTHING BUT!!! This is shown by C. Birek as she turns to chat with a friend.

"CONTRACTS, PAYMENTS AND FINALLY YEARBOOKS" is the thought on the minds of these familiar staff members M. L. Karl—Editor, J. Bertel—Assistant Editor, C. Beringer, J. Bertel, and P. Muchler—Business Manager as they calculate payments in order to be able to distribute yearbooks in later months.

ONE NIGHT IN PARADISE!! Getting ready for their big night are J. Winters, K. Suess, and L. Clerici. Hey boys! Isn't this a change from our good old St. Mike uniforms.

LUNCHTIME ACTIVITIES. Hiding from Sister are D. Bischof, C. Gralka, D. Donovan, and P. Wilhelm as the clock ticks on, nearing the ringing of the bell.

Christmas Cantata

"ONE, TWO, THREE, ABOUT FACE!" and singing from the pits of their hearts are the present members of the Glee Club, who worked many hours to present a very colorful impression during the production of "March of the Toy Soldiers."

"SNOOPY'S CHRISTMAS" sung by P. Birek presented a feeling of love and concern to these two children performed by P. Wilhelm and T. Battung.

SMILING IN THEIR OWN MARSHMALLOW WORLD are these merry dancers G. Grillo, K. Milcarek, N. Glowacki, C. Kamp, and G. Linke extending a warm-hearted feeling to everyone.

QUEEN OF WONDERLAND and princess of the toy world appears to be the impression that was given to the audience as P. Walkowiak sang her solo.

"NICK IN THE BOX" singing his version of "Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas" gave the audience something to smile about and the children something to wish for next Christmas.

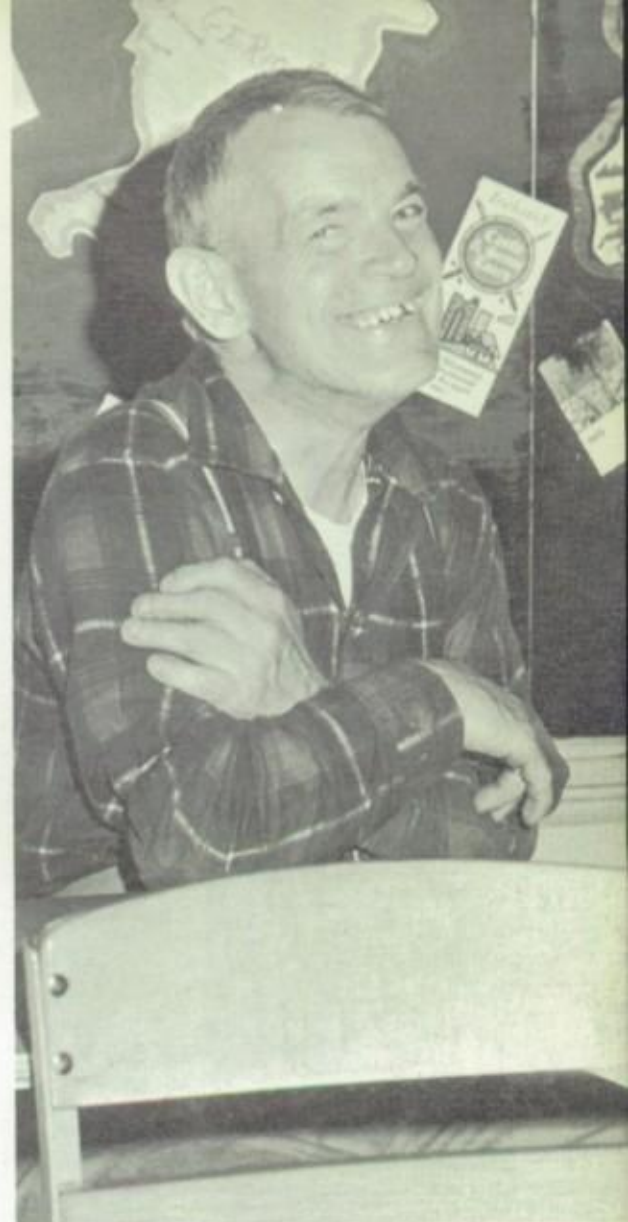

The world is full of wonderful people who find happiness in helping others. We encounter quite a few of these people here at Saint Michael. People who give unselfishly of their time and patience to the student body.

There is no greater virtue than charity. Jesus taught man to be charitable and to show kindness to all men. Our helpers have paved the way for us and have showed us the joy of sharing their time with others. I hope we will be able to profit from our acquaintance with them.

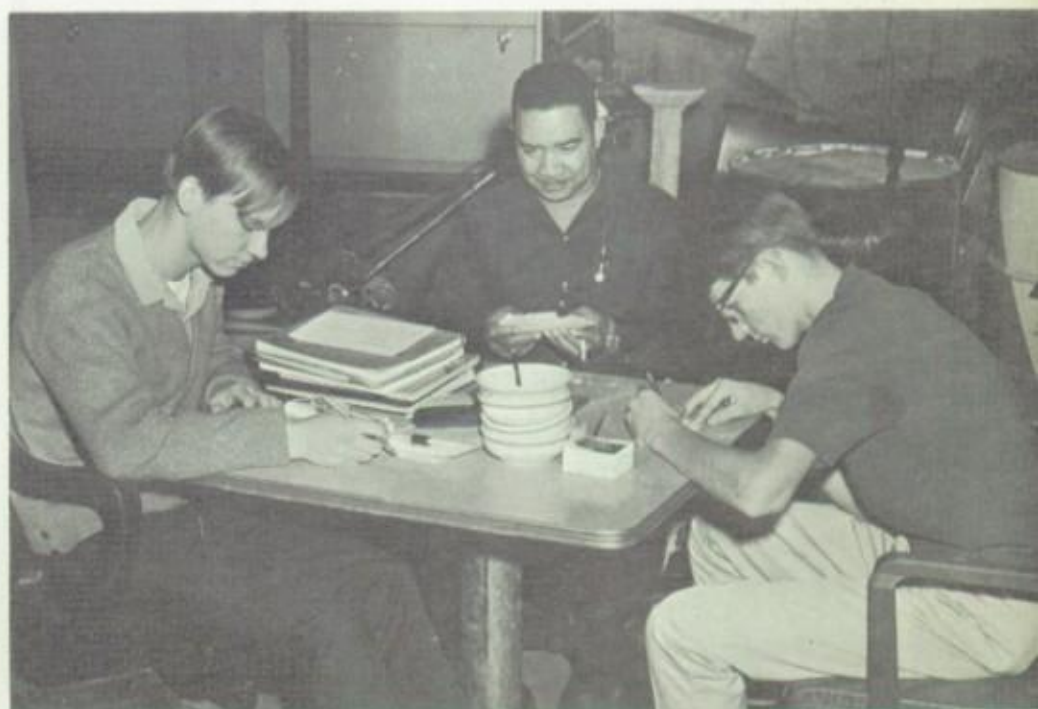

"THANK GOD FOR MOTHERS" and for the deeply appreciated time they gave to prepare breakfast for the senior class.

"CHARITY PREVAILS" in these parents who graciously give of their time to chaperone a dance for the student body.

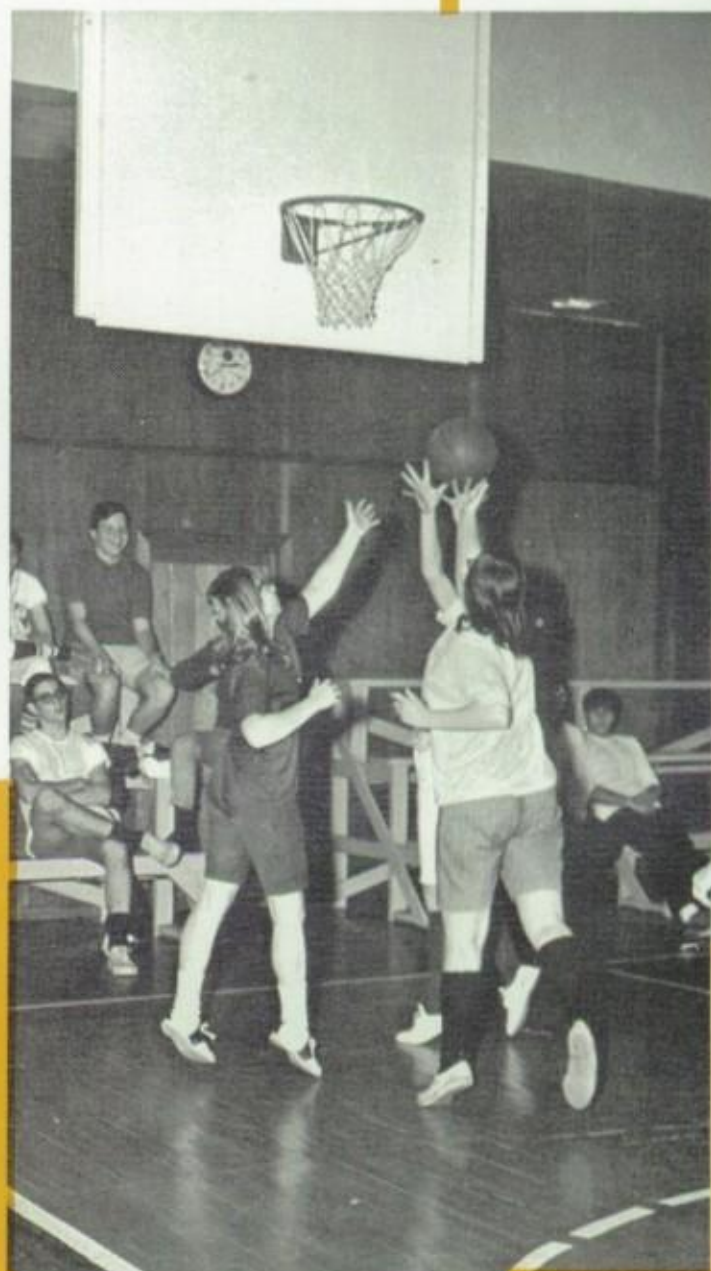

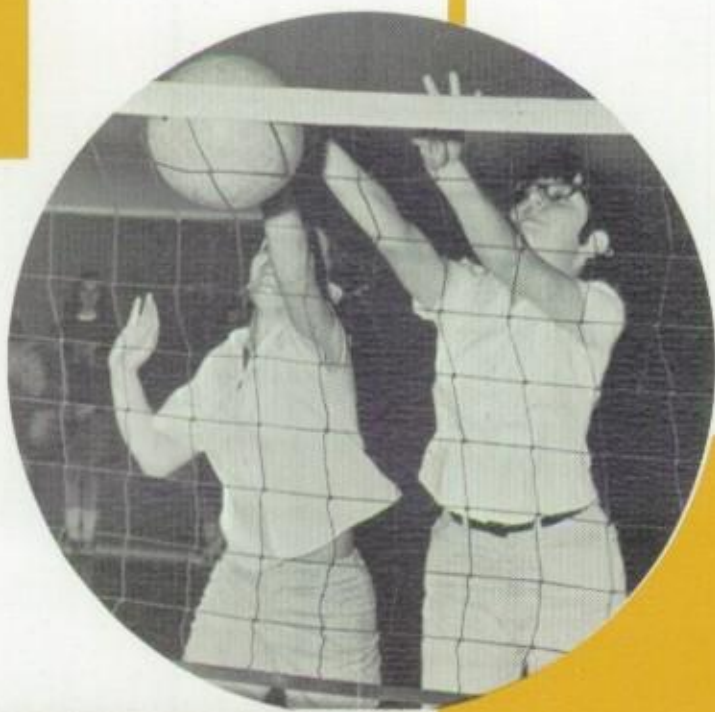

"BUDDY'S OUR MAN" is the only way we can express our appreciation for the numerous things he does throughout the school day.

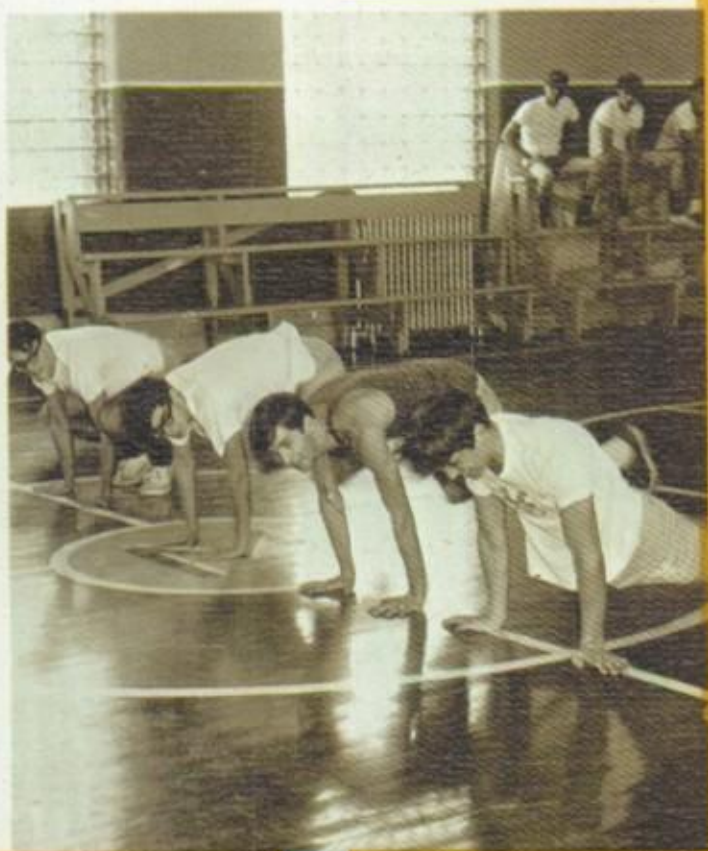

"MR. PERSONALITY," who has a smile for everyone and is willing to help anyone, has only begun to be appreciated for his work. His name is Mr. Ziegler.

RICH SCORES TWO POINTS as he leaps high for the basket. From the opponents' faces, this was not supposed to happen.

READY TO CHEER are St. Michael's famous J.V. Cheerleaders C. Blahut, J. Cancillo, D. Panko, J. Kuhar, D. Pokora, D. Lotis, J. Donovan, and D. Milinski.

"HUSTLE, HUSTLE, WE WANT TO WIN!" Shout the excited J.V. cheerleaders. Cheering our boys on to victory from the sideline are J. Donovan, C. Blahut, D. Milinski, D. Panko, D. Lotis, and J. Cancillo.

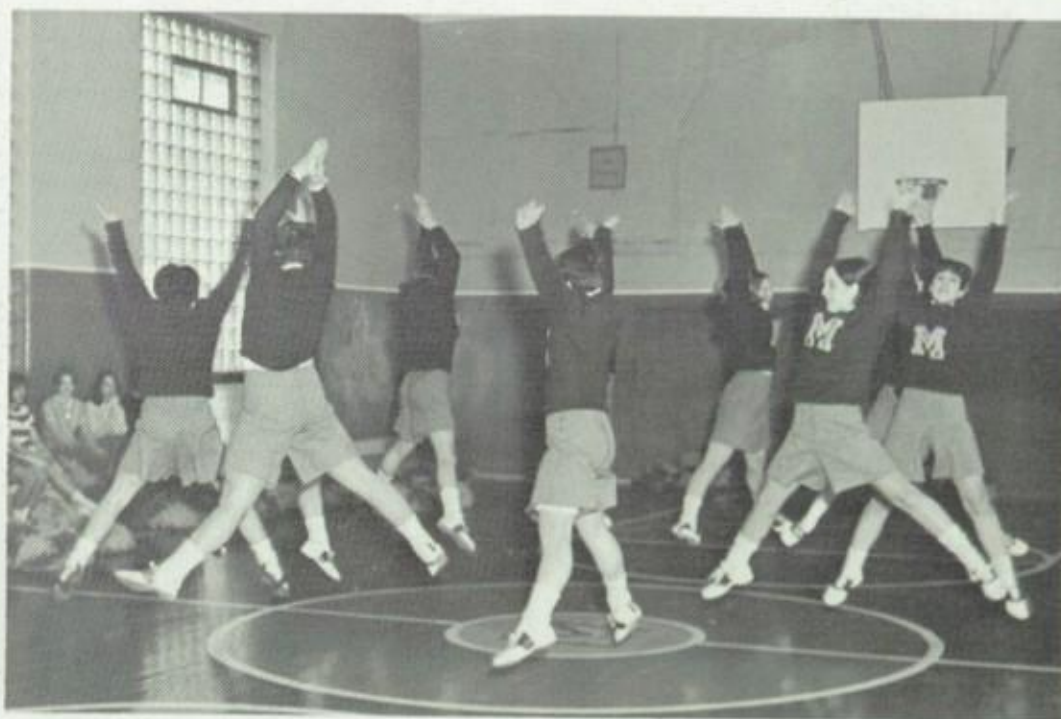

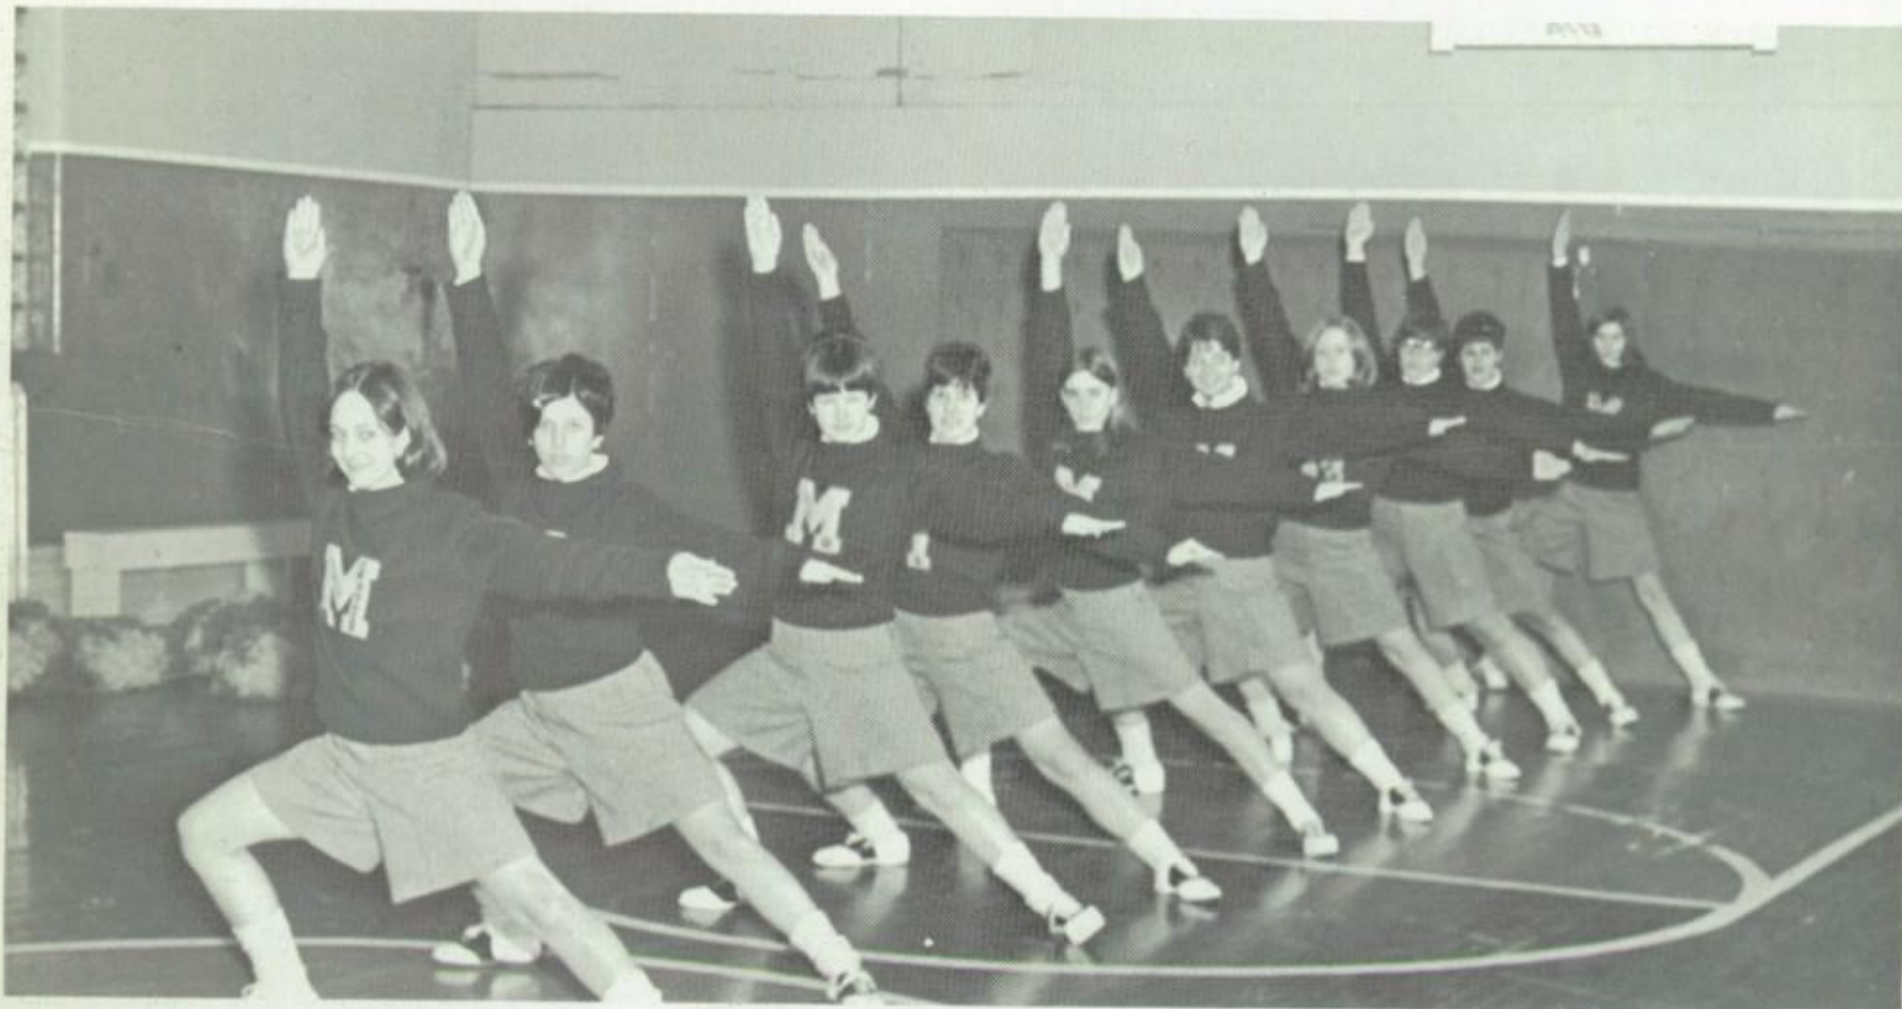

WE GOT THE SPIRIT THAT A GREAT TEAM NEEDS! This is the response that our team gets from the J.V. Cheerleading Squad who are led by D. Panko, Captain, and C. Blahut, Co-Captain. J. Donovan, J. Kuhar, J. Cancillo, D. Lotis, L. Lipinski, D. Milinski, and D. Pokora try hard to live up to the honor of being a cheerleader for St. Michael.

J.V. Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders

RAH, RAH—HEY, HEY—Our Varsity Cheerleaders take great pride in saying that "Blue and Gold are here to stay." They wholeheartedly believe the Mustangs are the best.

GRRR-EAT! The varsity cheerleaders are great. They have the pep and the spirit that a school needs. Their devotion makes them extra special in the eyes of the Mustangs.

THANKS AND GOOD LUCK—We take great pride in thanking our Senior Varsity cheerleaders: N. Happe, D. Karcher, J. Hudson, R. Yotz, and A. Tulisiak for a job well done this year. Without them our school spirit would amount to little. So, good luck and thanks again.

OUR BASEBALL TEAM—Seated: K. Poleski, B. Meixner, F. Aul, R. Szezyk, M. Huber, J. Vogel, and N. Tupi. Standing: Mouse Krauss, R. Senn, T. Beringer, W. Huber, E. Kazmierczak, J. Geraci, and M. Rieber.

Pep Club

"CHECK THE SCORE" Our Pep Club officers are anxiously awaiting the decision of the referee.

ENTHUSIASM is the key word for the great Pep Club of St. Michael high. You can always count on them to keep the spirit high.

"OH, WELL, CAN'T WIN THEM ALL!" E. Schanck, E. Kazmierczak, P. Walsh, M. Dytko, C. Becker, and C. Rieber return from playing in the softball intramural. Unfortunately, they lost.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT. The Junior football team daily lived by this slogan until they went down to defeat by the "Mighty Seniors".

TEAM WORK is what did it for the Seniors as they defeated the Juniors by a large margin. This game was one of the highlights in the school.

Intramurals

Intramurals are the greatest activities in a school. They can only take place if the students have great spirit and a will to show it. Everyone who takes great effort in preparing them or who participates in them is outstanding. A school needs sportsmanship and the achievers show it. Not everyone can win, the students realize that, but that doesn't hinder them. They keep on trying. The kinds of intramurals vary from basketball to baseball to chess. All are a measure of one's capability. Some day these very students who took part in these activities might very well have an opportunity to be in one of these special fields.

"SINK IT, TOM"—are the eager words of A. Beloncis to T. Kenitz as J. Grzeczka and D. Lamanski get ready to catch the rebound.

"SHALL I MOVE THIS ONE?"—asks D. Hick as L. Sneltzer becomes confident of his victory. D. Ray and D. Milinski, still in the midst of a good game, try to check each other.

AN EXPRESSION OF FEAR—is what S. Bliszczy seems to be giving to D. Habrat, J. Froehlich, D. Shilling and J. Vogel as they seem to be ready to charge on him.

"ITS YOUR MOVE"—seem to be the words of J. Daugherty and J. Brendel to R. Rauber and K. Corcoran as they realize they are in check. M. Dytko and B. Posset watch on in wonder.

I'LL GET IT!—says N. Fritz as she jumps up to try to hit the volleyball over the net. M. Henke, N. Donovan, R. Yotz and S. Bernacki are willing and ready to back her teammate if she misses.

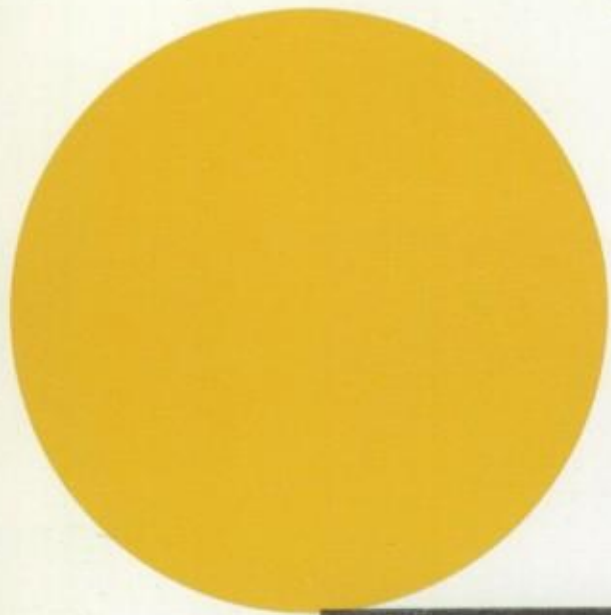

AT LAST!—Freshie M. Broznick has proved herself to her classmate D. Mogan by being able to hit the volleyball over the net in order to win the game.

AIMING FOR A STRIKE!—Seniors K. Lozecki and M. Dytko are very impressed in the way J. Geraci takes time to think before he moves.

WHOOPS!—are the laughing words of J. "Butter Fingers" Bertel as she drops her bowling ball while A. Letson is confident of a strike. J. Bertel, M. L. Karl, C. Beringer and D. Frobe can't help but laugh at Jean's frantic efforts.

A Winner Never Quits

A Quitter Never Wins

THE STUDENT COUNCIL of St. Michael Grade School under their moderator Mr. Robert K. Hayden want to compliment the Seniors of 1969 for having done a great job in the past, and we wish them continued success in the future. The officers are: President, Sharon Lotis; Vice-President, Ralph Ignaski; Secretary, Elaine Kichta; and Treasurer, Ronald Hirt.

"PEPSI"

MARKS OF QUALITY

This fine old percussion pistol, muzzle loading, belonged to an English sea captain. It was made over a hundred years ago. The maker's hallmark identifies his work.

Today, J&L and other steel producers—proud also of their skill—identify the beauty, durability, and quality of steel with the symbol called the Steelmark. Look for the Steelmark when you buy.

To The Underclassmen,

At seventeen we have seen very little of life, but for the most part we have fallen in love with what we have found, except possibly, the curriculum. We may feel that a chemistry course is a needless burden since most of us will never become chemists. But, at this stage of our lives, how many of us really know what we want to be?

Our lives are our own and we will direct them as we choose. Each of us possesses the virtue of hindsight; unfortunately, few of us can claim foresight. Our faculty, using their own hindsight, can recall the results of their own mistakes to advise us, and we, as seniors, can now advise you through our experience.

Freshmen, do not consider high school instant maturity. Maturity comes slowly through willingness to accept others, as well as yourself.

Sophomores, even though you are now in the "awkward" year of high school, do not grow complacent. Make yourselves felt in the school, not by attracting attention but by meriting recognition.

Juniors, when you become the seniors, look forward to your privileges, and also the responsibilities of leadership.

To the student body, after we have left Saint Michael's, we will reminisce over the "good times" we had—realizing these were the "only times" we had.

Seniors of 203

Senior Class Room 203—1969

To Saint Michael High School:

To our Alma Mater, our "nourishing Mother",

"For this we bless you most," we, your children whom you have guided to the threshold of Life, "you give much and know not that you give at all." You gave of your knowledge, revealing your hopes for us, and together we have formed visions yet to be seen. You have opened the door of the firmament to show us the colors and give us the desires. You have given us a deeper thirsting for Life, "and surely there is no greater gift than that which turns aims into parching lips and all life into a fountain." Your heartbeats were in our hearts as you bore us and we must never let the tempo escape because it is the rhythm of Tomorrow! Mother, you are alive in us! You will live in our successes as we have grown in your experience. "And ever has it been said that love knows not its own depth until the hour of separation. Farewell to you and the youth we have spent with you. Our half-walking has turned into fuller day and we must part . . . and of your longing, we have built a tower in the sky." Mother, remember us for we have loved growth together. Saint Michael High School, our Alma Mater, we your children, Thank you.

Acknowledgments

We, the 1969 Michaelinian Staff, would like to express our sincere gratitude to all those who have helped us achieve our goal—a great yearbook. In keeping with our theme, "Development Through Education," our deepest gratitude goes out to Father John Patrick Moore, our pastor, and Father Peter O'Rourke, our assistant, for the guidance shown in our development here at St. Michael. Special thanks to Sister M. Celestine and the faculty and Sister Mary Clare, our adviser, for all the interest, encouragement, and effort spent in aiding us in the production of this book. We would also like to thank those who were generous in financing our yearbook: the advertisers, business patrons, special patrons, and personal patrons; and to those students who reached their quota or went on to do more by becoming a booster. To Mr. A. Cardell, Mr. R. Stephens, and Cardell Studios, we extend our deepest appreciation, for the fine photography; and to Mr. Edward Ursprung and the staff of the William T. Cooke Publishing Company our sincere thanks for all their services rendered to us. May God bless and keep all those who have sacrificed their time for the benefit of this book.

Sincerely,

Mary Lou Karl
